

Create Your Own Adventure

A coloring and storytelling adventure to make as a family.

START HERE, TOGETHER

Suggested ages 4-8, with a grown-up nearby. Everyone can join in.

You need: these pages, pencils and crayons. No cutting or glue.

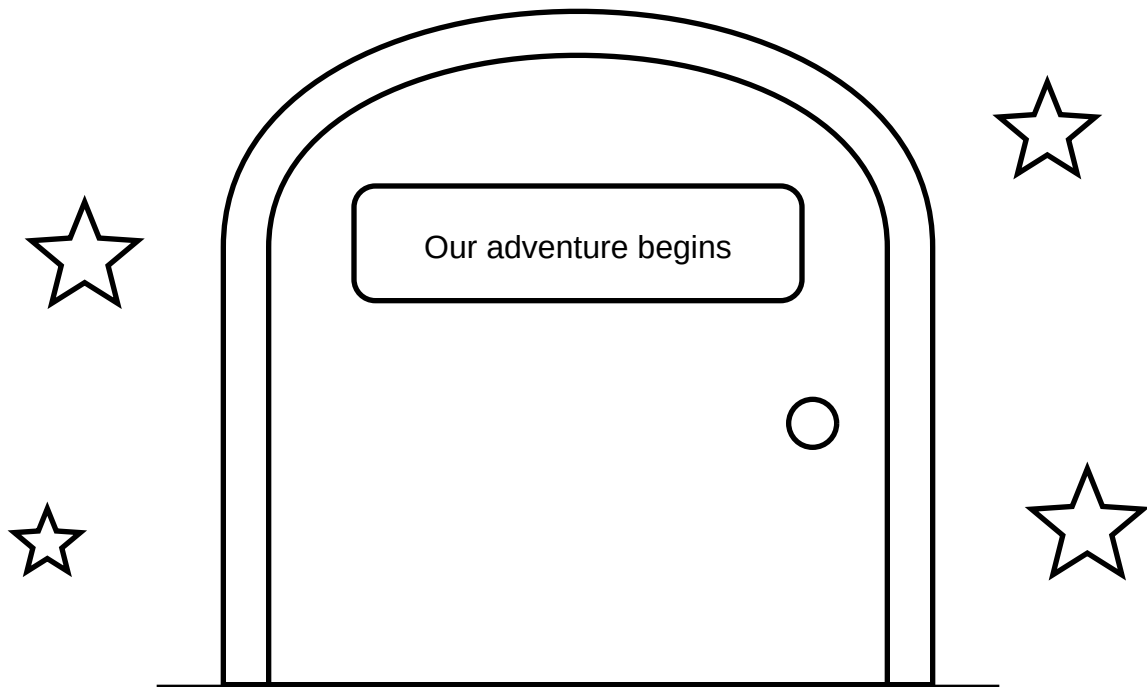

Take turns choosing, coloring and adding ideas. Pass a turn any time.

Children can draw or tell their ideas; a grown-up can write them down.

Do the pages in order, or take a break and come back to your story.

1. Open an imaginary door

Color the door. What could be waiting on the other side?

Made by: _____

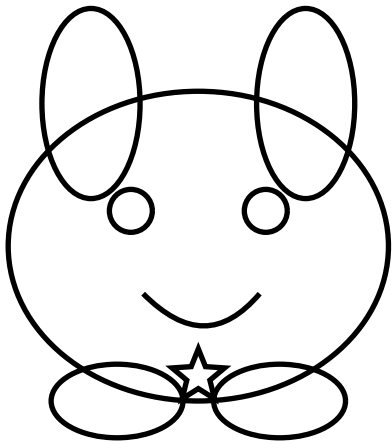

Our story title (you can choose this later):

Meet your story team

Take turns: one person invents a character, another adds a detail.

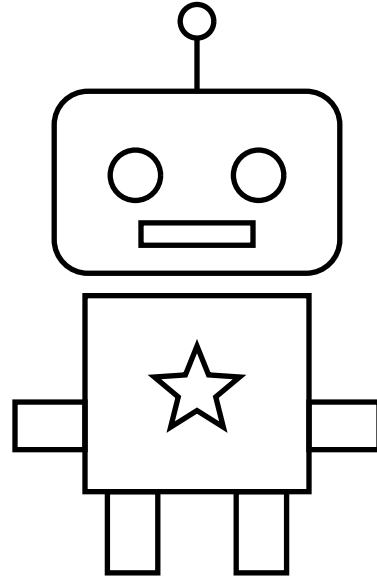

2. Color a helper, or invent your own

These shapes are a starting point. Add patterns, clothes or extra features.

Name: _____

Loves: _____

Name: _____

Loves: _____

Draw another character, or draw your family as the story team.

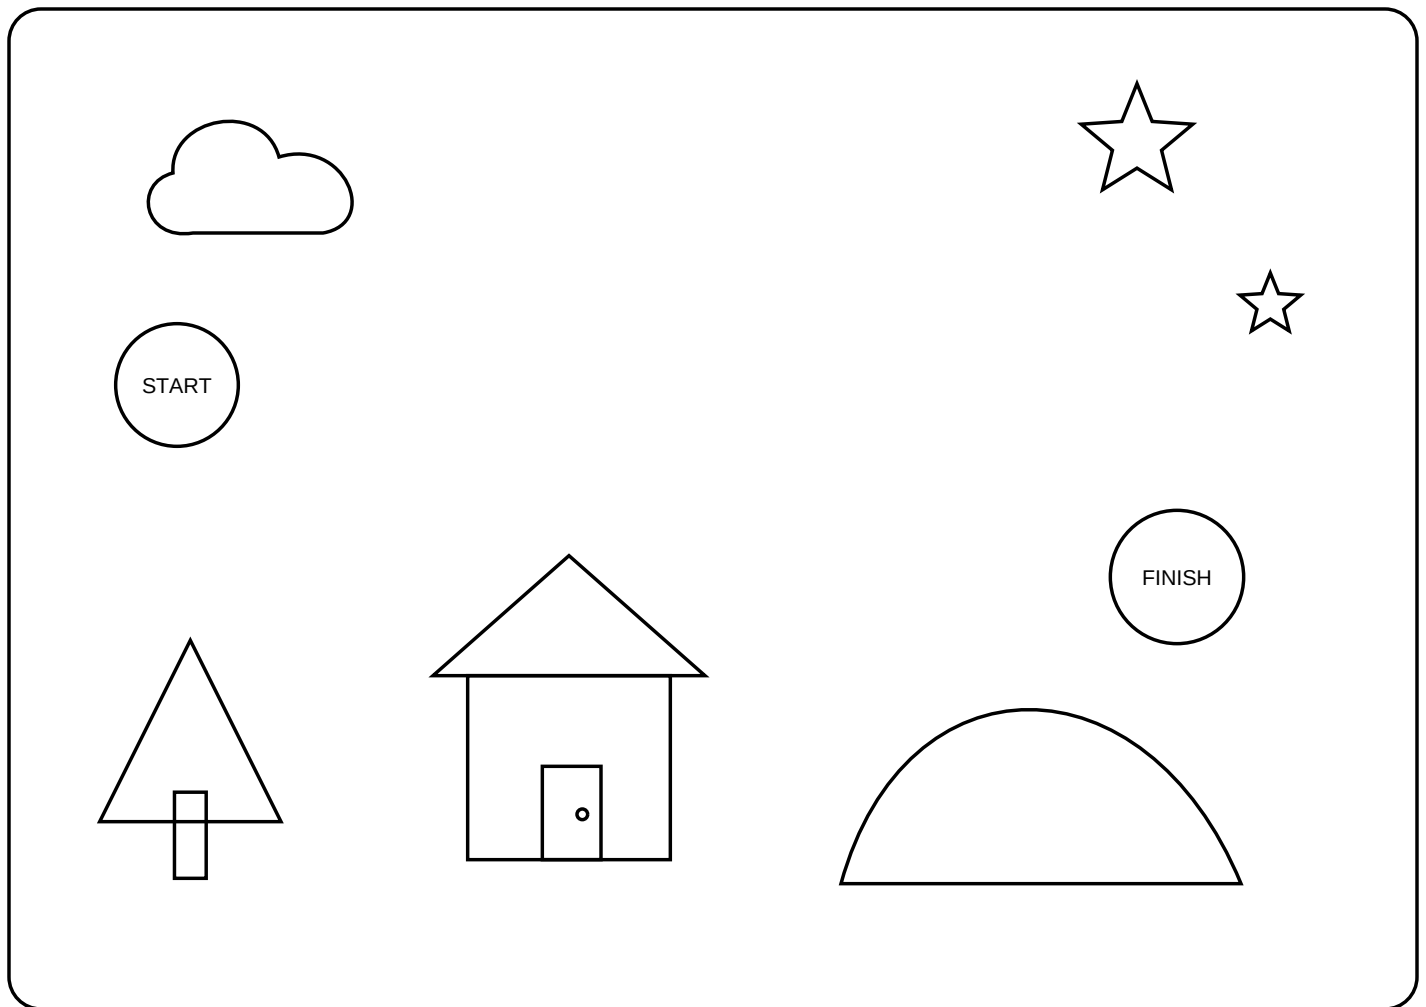

How will your characters help each other?

Make a world to explore

Choose a place together: a cloud garden, a cozy moon, or your own idea.

3. Color and complete your adventure map

Draw a start, a special place and a finish. Join them with a winding path.

Our world is called: _____

A sound we hear there: _____

A surprising thing we find: _____

Family turn: let each person add one thing to the map.

A little problem appears

Keep it kind: choose a gentle problem that your team can solve together.

4. Pick one, or invent your own

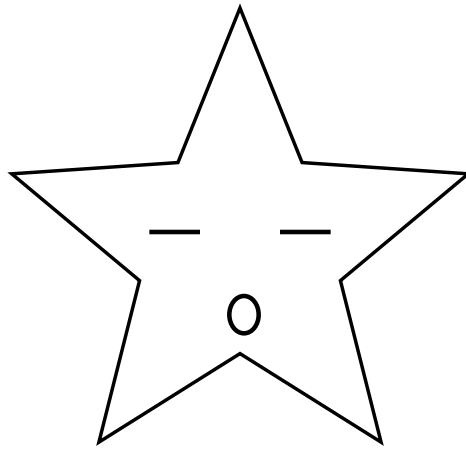

☐ A missing invitation

☐ A mixed-up map

☐ A sleepy star

☐ Our own idea

Color this sleepy star, or draw the problem around it.

What happened?

How does someone in the story feel?

What could the team try first?

Tell it, draw it, share it

Make one story together. A grown-up can write down the words you say.

5. Take turns adding to the story

1. At the beginning...

Who is here, and where are they?

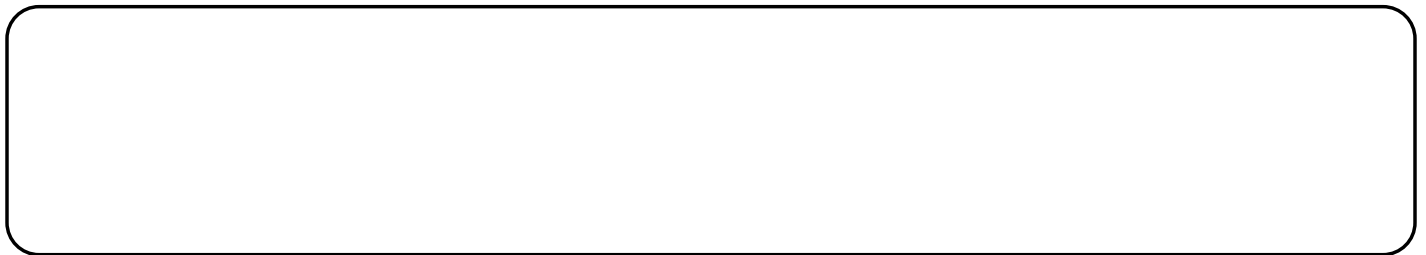

2. Then something happened...

What is the problem, and what do they try?

3. Together, they...

How do they help each other?

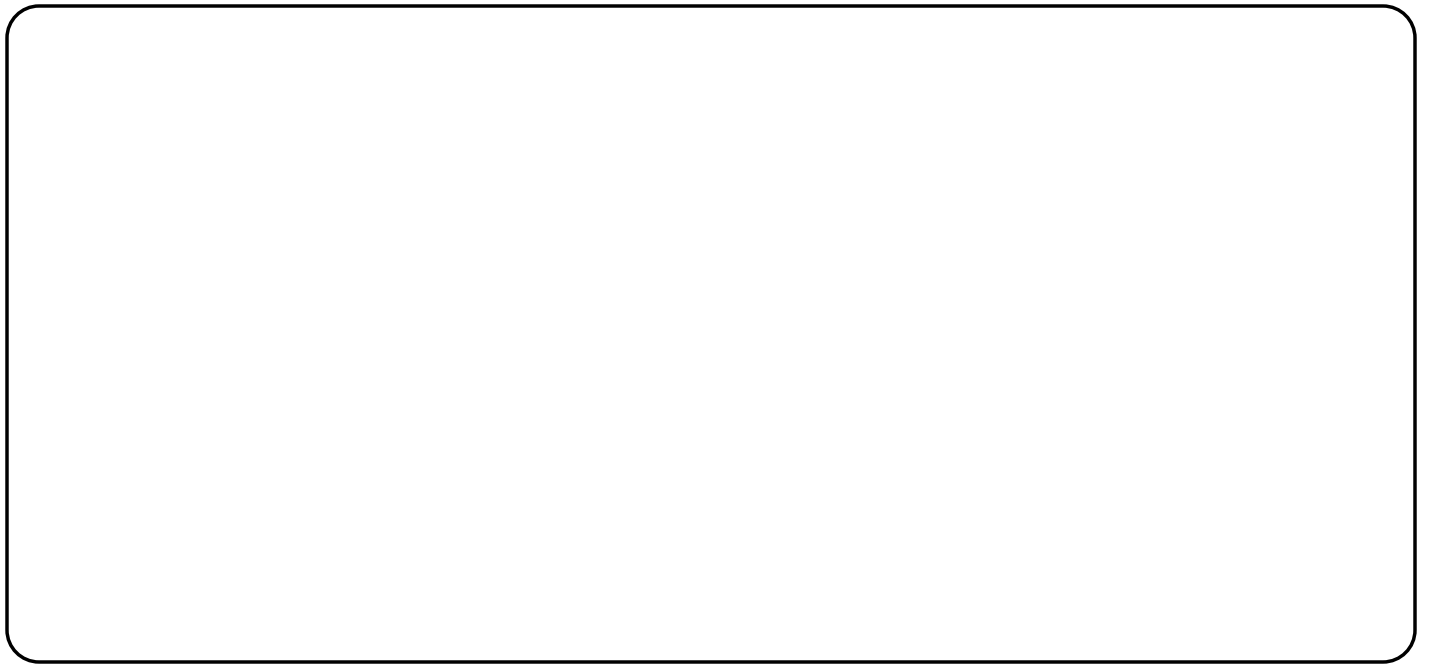

Give your adventure an ending

Listen to every idea. Your ending can be funny, cozy, surprising or quiet.

6. Finish your story together

At the end...

Draw and color your final scene.

Our favorite moment was:

One thing each person added:

Share it: take turns telling your story, using the pages as clues.

Print help: use A4 or Letter paper and choose Fit to page.
